

Reflective Questions for Redefining the Win — Mask of Success

1. How has the world's definition of success shaped your view of obedience?

We chase measurable wins and overlook invisible faithfulness.

“What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?” — Micah 6:8

God defines success by obedience, not outcome.

2. Why is self-reliance celebrated when God calls for dependence?

Because control feels safer than surrender.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.” — Proverbs 3:5

Faith grows strongest when we stop trying to steer.

3. When was the last time you let God, not results, determine if you were winning?

Obedience often feels ordinary—but in Heaven, it's victory.

“Whoever is faithful in very little is also faithful in much.” — Luke 16:10

God's scoreboard rewards unseen consistency, not visible success.

4. What does “doing justice” look like in your everyday life?

It's how you treat people when no one's watching.

“Learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression.” — Isaiah 1:17

Integrity isn't proven by public applause—it's shown in private choices.

---

5. How are you showing kindness when it costs you something?

True kindness demands sacrifice, not convenience.

“Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.” — Ephesians 4:32

Loving kindness is grace in action, not words.

6. When do you struggle most to walk humbly with God?

Usually when pride disguises itself as confidence.

“Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.” — James 4:10

Humility is choosing God’s pace over your platform.

7. What areas of your life have become about performance instead of presence?

Even ministry can become a mirror if we forget who we’re serving.

“Abide in me, and I in you... apart from me you can do nothing.” — John 15:4–5

God isn’t asking for busyness—He’s asking for closeness.

8. How would your definition of success change if no one ever noticed your effort?

If the spotlight disappeared, would your faith remain steady?

“For we walk by faith, not by sight.” — 2 Corinthians 5:7

The quiet wins are often the ones that matter most to God.
